

Youth and Adult Education

If you have not already registered your children PreK-12th Grade, (minimum 4yrs.old), please do so as soon as possible--look for the green forms on the table as you walk into the fellowship hall. Our teachers are gearing up for the New Catechism and Liturgical Year (Sept.1), and we have a few new staff members to tell you about, and they are: Athena Poulos, Kim Saffo, Doug Brown and Evangelos Fragos. We welcome their commitment to our Youth and the Catechism Program. Classes begin promptly at 9:45 am, on Sunday, September 13, 2009.

Philoptochos Society

Many thanks to everyone who came to the Philoptochos fund-raising Panagias Day Celebration. It was very successful as well as a lot of fun. Your continued support is greatly appreciated.

New Website!!!

Our parish now has a new redesigned website. Its new name is www.stnicholaswilmington.org or simply stnicholaswilmington.org. This new website was designed by our Communications department with Fr. Matthew's guidance using resources and the support of the Archdiocese's Internet Ministries. As you will be able to see, it features various pages with a good deal of information like our history, our faith, an interactive parish calendar and map, links to our weekly bulletin, monthly newsletter and Greek Festival website as well as orthodox links to the Patriarchate of Constantinople, Archdiocese of America, Metropolis of Atlanta and orthodox christian multimedia resources among others. The old name www.stnicholaswilmington.com will still be active until it expires at the end of this year in order to facilitate the transition smoothly. Pretty soon it will display a message redirecting to the new name.

Goya

GOYANS: Just wanted to welcome you guys back... since school has started we are going to get back to work too! We hope everyone is happy with school and everything! Here are a couple dates you should mark on your calendar...

- Saturday September 12 is the Cross Dive. If you are in 9th-12th grades you should consider diving!
- Sunday September 13th at 2:00 will be our first GOYA meeting for this year.
- Friday September 25th we will have a lock-in at the church.

Saturday October 24th we will go to ropes course.

Our new officers for this year are...
